

This form enables candidates to appeal any unfavorable non-disciplinary decisions made by IBCA during the examination process. The appeal process is designed to be rigorous and impartial, and it allows candidates to present additional evidence or information that may not have been available during the initial decision-making process. It is important to note that the appeal process is not available for disciplinary decisions. Candidates who wish to appeal a non-disciplinary decision must complete this form in full and submit it here within the specified timeframe, along with any necessary documents. IBCA will review the appeal and notify the candidate of its decision within a reasonable timeframe.

Examinees can appeal their results under certain circumstances. These circumstances include:

- If the examinee or any member of their immediate family experiences a serious accident or sudden medical condition requiring immediate attention.
- If there is bereavement in the family.
- If the examinee is summoned for urgent national duty, jury duty, or court appearances.
- If the examinee is facing immobility issues due to economic restrictions or disruptions.
